

NEW YORK STATE FAIR CHEVY COURT POLICY

I. Policy

The following rules have been established to provide Fairgoers with an enjoyable experience during events at Chevy Court:

Smoking is not permitted within the grassy areas of Chevy Court.

No standing on benches.

No sitting on shoulders of another.

Aisles must be kept clear of people, strollers, wheelchairs, scooters, etc.

Seats may not be “saved” for others. In the event of personal necessity, an individual may hold up to 2 additional seats for a limited time.

Unattended personal items, such as blankets, clothing, coolers, bags, etc., that are intended to save seats will be collected and held for return to the Fairgoer.

Wheelchair and limited-mobility seating is available on a first-come, first-served basis. Each wheelchair and limited-mobility seat is allowed 2 companion seats. Companions seated in the wheelchair section must remain seated.

No professional cameras or professional recording devices allowed.

No umbrellas while the show is underway.
