Health Requirements:

BVD-PI Testing and Rabies vaccination required

- All cattle, llamas and alpacas exhibited at NY county fairs or the State Fair must be negative to an approved test appropriate to detect Bovine Viral Diarrhea persistent infection (BVD-PI). The testing veterinarian is responsible to make sure the proper test is conducted. This is a once in a lifetime test that must be reported on the required certificate of veterinary inspection. The issuing veterinarian is responsible for verifying the validity of the test, the identification of the animal and recording the test date on the CVI. If a previous test is not verifiable the test must be repeated.

General Stalling Information

- * Stalling will be assigned. All exhibitors will be notified of their stall assignments on arrival. Entries will be accepted up to the capacity of the barn. The stalls are 8' x 8' stationary stalls. All sides are open vertical pipes and roughly 4' high. The floors are cement, and electricity and water are available near each stall. The exhibitor must supply hoses, extension cords, and multiple outlets if desired.
- * Tack, feed, and hay must be kept within a stall. All stalls can be decorated.

Schedule of Events

(Subject to Change)

All llamas must be inspected at vet check station behind the barn before unloading at Barn.

International Llama Registry-SD

- * The New York State Fair Llama Show is ILR-SD-approved and follows the rules and regulations set forth by ILR-SD. Each exhibitor is responsible for knowing the current ILR-SD regulations governing their entries. For further ILR-SD information contact: ILR.
 - * Exhibitors must be the registered owners and make entries in the exact names as shown on the registration certificate (exact owner and animal names).
 - * An exhibitor shall never protest a Judge's decision in the ring and should ask the Ring Steward for permission to talk to the Judge. If exhibitors have a complaint or protest regarding the Judge's decision, should put it in writing, sign it, and submit it to show management.
 - * Only voice and hand commands may be used in exhibiting animals. The use of food, clickers, or any other device is strictly prohibited.
 - * You are not required to be a member of ILR or the show division. There are no nonmember fees.
 - * All llamas must be registered with ILR except those shown only in the youth division.
 - * Show Management may dismiss an exhibitor who is abusive or demonstrates bad sportsmanship towards the Judge, Show Personnel, or any other exhibitor.
- “NO SALES ARE TO BE CONDUCTED ON THE FAIRGROUNDS” – MEANING – NO EXCHANGE OF MONEY OR ANIMALS AT ANY TIME DURING FAIR
- * A $5 per animal fee is required FOR EVERY ANIMAL (this includes the sire and dam for Get or Produce even if not present at show) entered in the show

There are two types of stalls: Animal and Display.

- Animal Stalls – must house a maximum of two animals REGARDLESS OF SIZE. The exhibitors must provide their own feed, hay and bedding. Sand and newspaper bedding are not permitted. Straw, hay or shavings can be purchased from Harry Moore at (315) 672-3792
 - * Display Stalls – are adjacent to Animal Stalls. Display Stalls are only available in conjunction with Animal Stalls, and only 2 allowed per farm.
- Fans are recommended for your animals' health and comfort.

NOTE: IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF ALL EXHIBITORS TO KEEP THE BARN AREA CLEAN AT ALL TIMES.

Security

- * Security is at your own risk.

Show Location

- * The NYS Fair is located off I-690, 3.5 miles south of exit #39 on I-90 (NYS Thruway). There is easy access from Route 81 to I-690
- * Arrival/Parking/Departure
- * Exhibitor passes for two people and parking credentials for one vehicle and one trailer will be provided via email to exhibitors by the NYS Fair. Additional admission tickets may be obtained at the Gate.
- * The Fair officially opens Wednesday, August 26. Llamas must be in place by 10PM Tuesday August 25th
- * The show starts PROMPTLY at 10:00 AM on Thursday August 27. Trailers MUST be removed from behind the Llama Barn and parked in the gray parking lot promptly upon unloading. The distance traveled to the Fair will determine order exhibitors are dismissed.

- * Exhibitors must leave their animals and displays in place until FRIDAY AUGUST 28 11:30PM (unless released by Show Management).
- * ALL EXHIBITORS MUST LEAVE BY -6 AM-SATURDAY

Class Information

- * Animal substitutions are not permitted from the original entry unless an animal becomes injured or ill and permission is obtained from the Show Superintendent. A veterinarian certificate verifying injury or illness must accompany the request for substitution. The substitute animal will show in its own halter class, but not in the performance class(es) of the original.
- * All llamas entering halter classes should be presented for judging with a halter and lead rope and no additional decorations. Llamas can be entered in only one halter class. No farm/ranch, animal, organizational name, logo, or insignia shall be displayed on the exhibitor or animal during the class.
- * Youth exhibitors can wear 4-H and FFA-approved apparel in the show ring with personal names covered. FFA and 4-H apparel may be worn in Youth classes only.
- * Open-toed shoes, sandals, and bare feet will disqualify the exhibitor, and they will be dismissed from the show ring immediately.
- * Youth of all ages are encouraged to participate in both halter, and youth classes offered. Youth ages 7 through 11 may not show intact males over 18 months. The minimum age for a handler in any class is 7 years old, except in the Sub-Junior class(es).
- * Llamas and alpacas will compete in the same performance and optional classes.
- * If you sign up for a Costume Class, you must submit your one-minute typed/printed narrative no later than Noon on Friday.
- * Nursing mothers may not be accompanied in the ring by their babies. We recommend that nursing mothers not be shown.

As an exhibitor, please be prompt for each of your classes. Once the class has entered the ring & the gate is closed, late exhibitors may not join that class.

Performance Classes

AN ANIMAL MAY ONLY BE ENTERED IN ONE PERFORMANCE DIVISION: YOUTH OR ADULT.

Youth Division

Youth may not share animals

- * To accumulate points, youth must be members of ILR-SD. An animal may be entered in either the youth division OR the adult performance division. Youth must have written permission of a parent, project leader, 4-H advisor, or FFA advisor to participate in a youth event. Youth division entries must be made in the name of the youth. Youth may exhibit only 1 entry per class. PLEASE NOTE: Youth performance classes do not qualify for Show or Grand/Reserve Performance Champion status, per ILR rules. Youth performance classes DO qualify for either Junior /Intermediate/Senior Youth Grand/Reserve Performance Champion. See Definitions for specifics.

* All Youth ages 7 through 19 as of 1/1 of this calendar year may show in approved Youth Classes. A youth who becomes 7 during the year becomes eligible as of the date of their birthday.

- * All Youth who were between the ages of 7 and 19 must have the Youth Consent Form completed to participate in youth classes

* Youth Age Divisions

(See age definitions above)

Sub-Junior	6 years old and younger
Junior	Ages 7 through 11
Intermediate	Ages 12 through 14
Senior	Ages 15 through 19

- * Youth Performance Grand/Reserve Champion, Junior, Intermediate & Senior – This award will be presented to any youth who shows overall excellence by placing well in numerous show events. Youth must enter and compete in youth obstacle, youth pack and youth public relations. The youth with the highest accumulated point total wins. The same animal must be used in all 3 classes.
- * Youth Pack Classes – Please keep in mind, it is the exhibitor’s responsibility to be prepared to enter the ring in a timely manner. Sharing equipment is permissible provided there is no delay resulting in slowing or stopping the class. Exhibitors must provide their own saddle or day pack with 2 cinches complete with fill material. Llamas must be 5 months or older.
- * Junior Youth Pack – Junior youth will not put on or take off the pack during the class.
- * Intermediate & Senior Youth Pack – Intermediate & senior youth may take off the pack during the class.

- * Non-Breeder Llamas – Geldings, vasectomized males, spayed or non-reproductive females must be accompanied by a registration or veterinarian certificate verifying the above condition. The veterinarian must refer to the animal by name and registration number on the certificate. These classes are not divided by wool or sex. If fewer than 3 llamas in any age division, ages may be combined.

* Llama Age Divisions

Juvenile	5 – < 12 months
Yearling	12 – < 24 months
Two-Year-Old		24 – < 36 months
Adult	37 months & older

- * Halter Grand and Reserve Grand Champion

Grand Champion will be selected from the first-place llamas in each age division. Reserve Champion will be selected from the remaining first place llamas and the second-place llama from the Grand Champion’s age division.

- * Get of Sire/Produce of Dam Classes – The name of the sire/dam and information on that animal (registration number, date of birth, etc.) MUST appear on your entry form. The sire/dam are not exhibited. There may be more than one entry per sire/dam but only the top placing will earn points. All offspring exhibited in these classes must have been shown in their respective halter classes.
- * Get of Sire – Three offspring, either sex of the same sire, and by at least 2 different dams. If the Exhibitor(s) is not the sire’s owner, they must have written permission of the sire’s owner.
- * Produce of Dam – Two offspring, either sex, by the same dam. If the Exhibitor(s) is not the dam’s owner, they must have written permission of the dam’s owner.
- * Bred & Owned Llama – For breeding quality animals whose dams were owned by the exhibitor when the dam was bred, when the animal was born and is still owned by the exhibitor. These classes are limited to 1 animal of each sex from the same farm, demonstrating the best that farm has to offer.

Prizes and Awards

- * Show management expresses with gratitude their appreciation for the prizes, trophies and awards that have been contributed. These will be presented in addition to ribbons, rosettes and premiums offered by the New York State Fair, in most, but not all cases.
- * Premiums – Class premiums will be: First place - $25.00, second place - $20.00, third place – $15.00, fourth place - $10.00 and fifth place - $5.00. The NYS Fair will mail all premiums to the Premium Payee. Premiums will be awarded in all classes except Grand/Reserve Champion, Grand/Reserve Performance Champion, Junior, Intermediate & Senior Youth Grand/Reserve Performance Champion & Sub-Junior Classes Entry Information

Final Deadline: July 27

- * "Payee" is the individual/social security # or farm name/Federal ID # that the winning premium check will be issued to.
- * All animals present must be entered in ring classes (halter/performance).
- * All animals with the exception of Youth Classes, must be registered or have passed screening with the International Llama Registry (ILR). The Alpaca Registry, Inc. (ARI) Animals entered only in youth classes need not be registered.
