SPECIFIC RULES FOR DAHLIAS

1. The rules printed herein and the flower show general rules are made a part of the conditions under which all entries of exhibitors are made, and exhibitors are respectfully requested to read them carefully, thereby avoiding confusion at the time of the Fair and to ensure that all entries are in the appropriate class.
2. This is a Dahlia Show conducted under the rules for exhibiting and judging established by the American Dahlia Society. Books and Guides are available from the store at the A.D.S website.
3. An exhibitor may make more than one entry in each class provided each class is plainly a different variety.
4. Each bloom must have sufficient foliage showing above top of container to permit its proper evaluation (two sets of leaves is about right, and must be disbudded).
5. Containers and wedges will be provided for one bloom entries. Three entries must be exhibited in one container.
6. The use of any material except wedges to support stems above top of containers is prohibited.
7. The latest A.D.S. Classification and Handbook of Dahlias" shall be the authority for SIZE, TYPE & COLOR. All entries must be made in accordance to it.
8. All varieties must be correctly and clearly named on entry tag.
9. Undisseminated new varieties (seedlings) may be shown if identified with a number, or name and number if the name has been registered with the A.D.S. nomenclature committee.
10. Judging will be by A.D.S. Accredited Judges, at least one on each team. The latest revised edition of the A.D.S. Guide to Judging Dahlias SHALL RULE. The decisions of the judges shall be final.
11. A 2nd or 3rd award may be made in a class when none is worthy of a first.
12. Container arrangement. Containers must be provided by the exhibitor and must be in good condition. No ties or support may be used above top of container. Wedges, if used, must be below the top of the container. Accessory foliage suited to dahlias permitted. Container must contain a single variety.

13. The basis for judging all blooms will be the A.D.S. Scale of Points.
