SPECIFIC RABBIT DEPARTMENT RULES & REGULATIONS

1. The rules printed herein and the Poultry Building General Rules are made a part of the conditions under which all entries by exhibitors are made, and exhibitors are respectfully requested to read them carefully, thereby avoiding confusion at the time of the Fair and to ensure they are entering their exhibit correctly.
2. Animal health regulations listed must be complied with, as well as all general regulations of the Poultry Building in separate file. All entries are subject to general rules and Animal health regulations listed in the poultry building general rules.
3. The Fair reserves the right to add or substitute judges if conditions warrant.
4. The greatest possible care will be given to all exhibits, but the Management will not be responsible for any accident, mistake, loss or damage that occurs. Specimens are entered at the sole risk of the owner. Competent personnel will be in attendance throughout the fair and Management will do all in its power to ensure the safety and protection of the exhibits. Each specimen must be the bona fide property of the exhibitor.
5. At check-in all rabbits must meet the minimum weight requirement as set forth by the ARBA standard. Any diseased or injured animal will be rejected and sent home at the discretion of Management and/or the State Veterinarian who is on duty throughout the fair.
6. Rabbits must be checked in at front table, pass a health check and have a coop number placed in right ear before being placed in a coop.

7. Your State Fair entry is considered entry for the show. All rabbits therefore must be permanently and legibly earmarked in the left ear. Cavies must have an approved ear tag in the left ear. This is an ARBA Rule. Any animal not permanently marked will be rejected at check-in.
8. Officials & Superintendent reserve the right to limit exhibitors and/or entries for space and safety compliance.
9. 4-H'ers must let the Superintendent know which rabbits will be shown in the 4-H Show. This includes animals used for the Decathlon event.
10. Animals entered in the show may be sold by the exhibitor only after they are judged but cannot leave the building until after the general release time on the last day of the fair. Please pick up statement of additional rules and restrictions regarding sales upon check-in.
11. No exhibitors are allowed to enter the building outside of the posted public building hours unless the Superintendent is notified in advance.
12. Ribbons must be picked up on closing day.
13. To compete for best show display award, exhibitors must exhibit at least ten single entries.
